IMPRESSIONS

By: Stacey Lee and Kevin Duden
Photos By: Michelle Hall

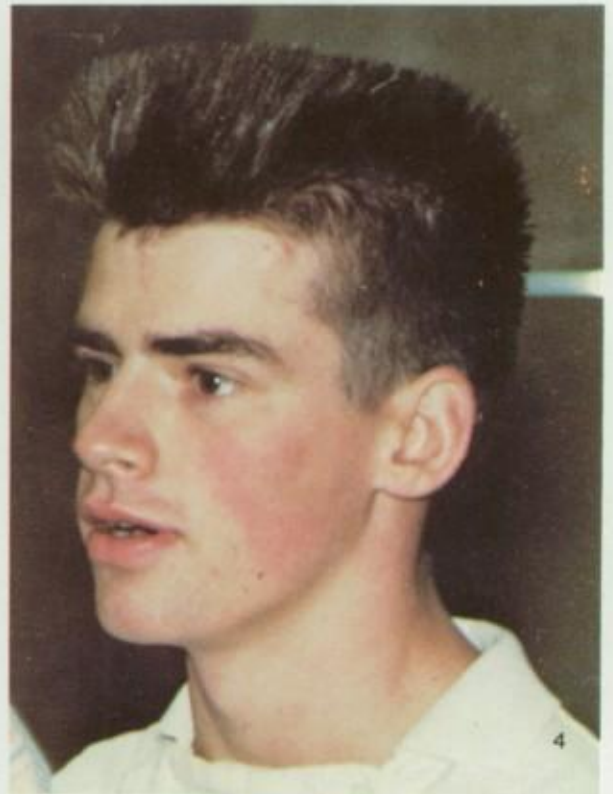

Impressions . . . Impressions are characteristic traits or features resulting from influence. Practically everyone at Beyer makes some sort of impression: students, teachers, faculty, and staff. Everyone creates their own unique impression. Students make impressions by the way they look, dress, talk, and by the way they present their over-all self. The clothing and hair styles of this year have changed from past years. Girls were wearing short below-the-knee peddle pusher pants, ankle length pants with zippers, mini-skirts, cut-off sweatshirts and high-heeled pumps. The guys around school seemed to be dressing more casual. They were wearing more trousers and slacks, collared shirts and sweaters, and occasionally even a tie (thanks to Mr. Pettingill).

1. Greg Scoggin sure has a look all of his own. 2. Dana Armstrong can always be seen in the latest fashions. 3. Danise Vaccaro was one of the very first girls to sport the new short hair cuts. 4. A very fashion conscious Claudia Mills gets a lift from her buddy Jim O'Connell. 5. Dave Trozak looking very punk and cool in his shades.

As for hair styles, girls were getting their hair cut shorter and guys even had "butches" and "flat-tops." Hair coloring and "rat-tails" were also fads for many students. Naturally all of the unique clothing and hair styles made an impression on fellow students, because once other students found out that it wasn't all that terrible to be different, they too created their own unique and stylish impression by the way they looked and dressed.

1. Mark Runnels definitely dresses in a class all by himself. 2. Todd Raffanti, one of the many guys to sport the casual look this year. 3. Waiting for class to start, Wendy Bishop and Amy Shoup take time out to smile for our camera. 4. James Damron was the very first guy at Beyer to get a "flat-top." 5. Bruce Baumbach always tries to look his best, even at football games. 6. Another fad dress style was the mini-skirt.

The students and teen-agers of today are creating a better impression than those of previous years. Today's high school student is a responsible and independent individual. He or she is concerned with getting a better education, holding down a steady job, and perhaps even going on to college. Nowadays students are more scholastically inclined and take greater pride in their studies and grades. Often times one can find a student studying in the library, or catching up on homework during lunch. After graduation many will decide to go on to college, in the meantime, quite a few are holding down part-time or after-school jobs. Some of the places where Beyer students work include fast-food restaurants, gas stations, out at the mall, here at school, and in private businesses. Wherever one works they should be proud of their job. After all, they are creating the impression that they are independent, responsible, and have taken that one giant step into the big wide world of life.

1. Burger King is where Angie Sanford works. 2. Beth Nagle and Jeff Johnson enjoy working at Karmelkorn, out at the mall. 3. Quatye Wilkerson works part-time at Kinney's. 4. Laura Simas has a job at Taco Bell. 5. Lisa Bledsoe also works at Taco Bell.

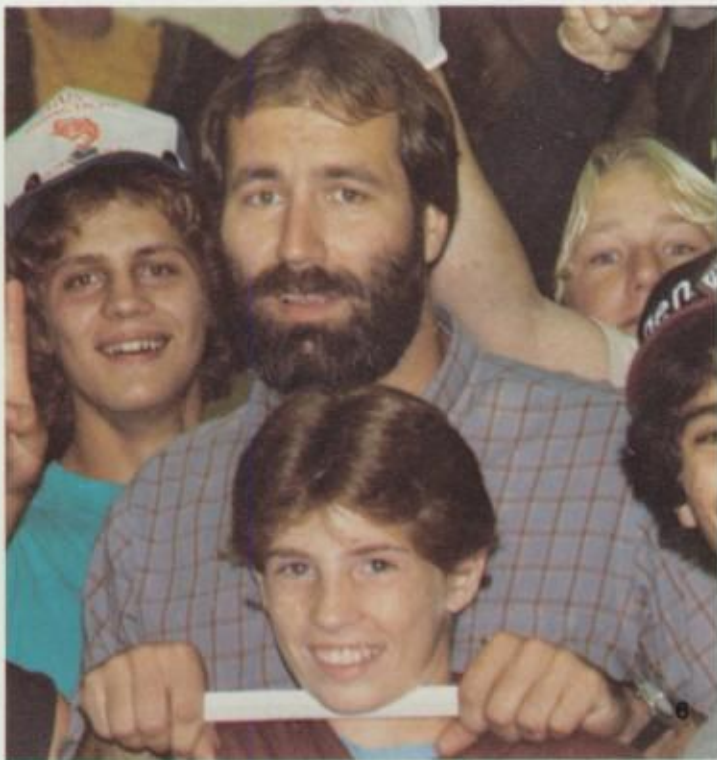

1. Sandra Davis enjoys painting in her color and design class. 2. John Monnich and Mahinder Singh show what studious studs they are. 3. Where there's a will there's a way! 4. Ben Warda shows that even football players study too! 5. Kay-Marie Olson spending some time working in the library.

Certainly every high school student needs help through their difficult school years. Beyer's staff of teachers and faculty have created a friendly and supportive impression. They are the ones who are always there to assist students when they are in need of help, counseling, or just someone to talk to in their spare time. The impressions that we have of our teachers and faculty are ones that are not only friendly, but also spirited. On game days or dress up days they too participated and took part in all of the spirited fun. Whether it be by the way they taught their classes, communicated with their students, or took that extra time out to help a student, each student is sure to remember the impressions that his teacher has made. New and first impressions were made this year when Beyer added to its faculty and administrative staff. These new teachers and administrators are sure to make their own impressions in due time.

1. Mr. Page gives a lecture to his metal shop class. 2. Our favorite graphics teacher, Mr. Wong. 3. Teaching social studies is what Mr. Billington enjoys doing. 4. Mr. Fisher, Mr. Nicholas, and Mr. Van Horn.

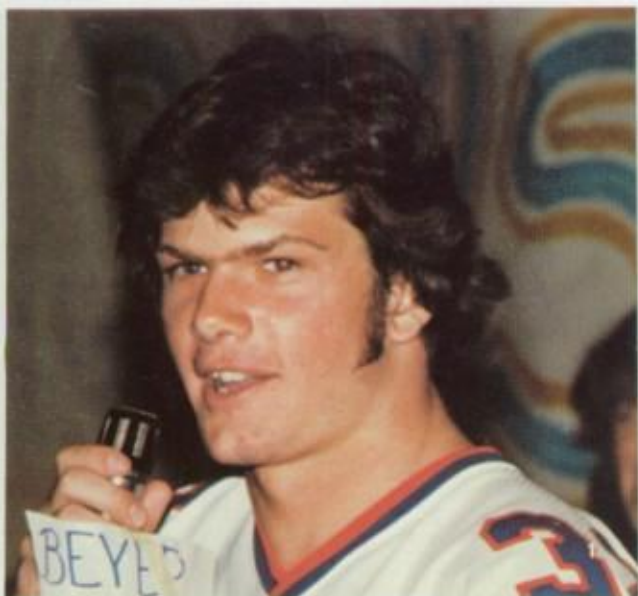

1. Mrs. Thompson stops to talk with Mr. Fisher about a scheduling problem. 2. A spirited Mr. Harvey dresses up as a clown for Halloween. 3. Mr. Bagget is sure one busy counselor. 4. Mr. White in his red, white, and blue, discusses the latest issue of the Courier, with editors Michelle Hall and Becky Waddle. 5. Our new head of the custodial department is Mr. Roy Parsons. 6. Getting involved with students is part of Mr. Ogden's job as our new student activities director.

1. An enthusiastic bunch cheers on for our Patriots. 2. Rob Glasgow took part in the fall Homecoming festivities. 3. Andy Olyphant participated in the "Dress Up As A Star" rally. 4. Some of our Sophomore football players shown cheering. 5. Part of the Junior class dressed up in togas and showed their spirit at the Homecoming game.

Through our involvement and participation, we have created the impression that we are an enthusiastic and energetic school. Whether it be a rally or sports event many supportive and spirited students could be seen cheering for their class and school. This year more students joined in on Homecoming and Spirit Week by dressing up and taking part in all of the fun and festivities. On game days, over half of the student body could be seen wearing the traditional red, white, and blue. Having fun and being involved is partly what school is all about. Creating the impression that we are one great spirited group is important not only to ourselves, but also to others outside of our patriot world.

1. Motivating the team and raising our spirit is what Scott Linzy did at this rally. 2. A very small portion of the Beyer Band is shown playing at a rally. 3. Joel Zamora promoting that Beyer Spirit, as we won our football game against Downey High School. 4. Chris Lytle involved in a class competition at a rally. 5. Part of the Varsity Football team getting seated before another exciting rally.

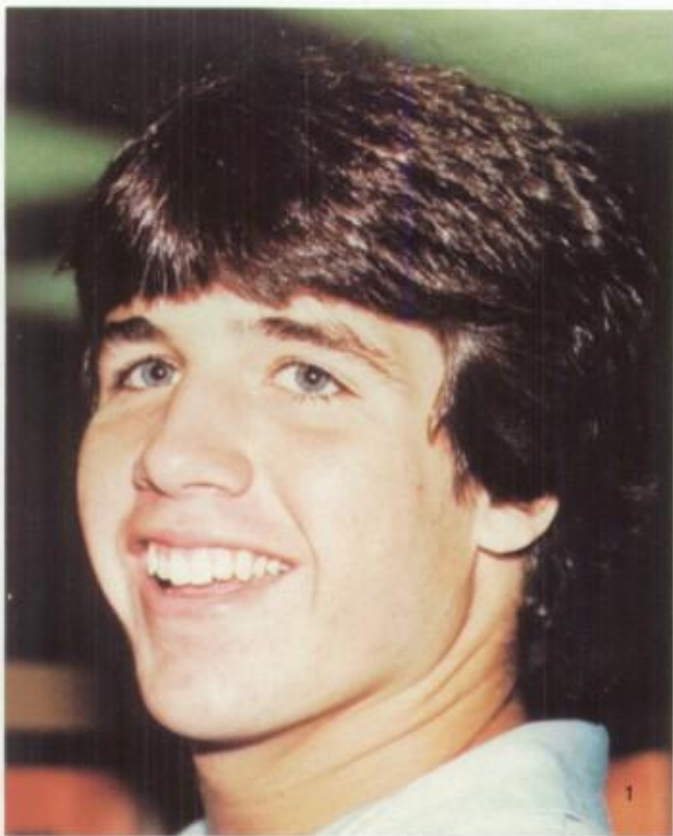

1. Varsity volleyball player, Natalie Baird falls to the floor after scoring against Davis High School. 2. Scott Montilla practicing before basketball season started. 3. John MacKenzie, who earned his block B playing soccer, proudly wears his letterman jacket. 4. Todd Clark in his Varsity football jersey. 5. Mark Boyd shows off his muscular body in weight training.

The impression that we get from our sports activity and participation can obviously be seen at any athletic event. Be it a football, basketball, tennis or soccer game, many Beyer boosters and rooters can be seen cheering for their school. After defeating a rivalry school and winning a tremendous victory, we rejoice with the wins and share in the heartaches of our defeats because we are truly impressed by the effort and teamwork of our players. Perhaps in the not so distant future, a college or pro career in sports is likely for some of our talented athletes.

1. These two freshmen football players are checking to see if their secret pals left them any goodies. 2. Varsity football players Scott Linzy, Steve Mireles, and Teh-Hung Li standing on the sideline and contemplating their next move against Downey High School. 3. Goalie for the girls water polo team, Leigh Shupp passes the ball. 4. Patty Gabel relaxes after a workout in gymnastics. 5. Ron Boggs shows us his strength and muscles in weight-lifting.

1. Rod Long laughing at a joke. 2. Aaron Ward and friend Linda Mead sitting outside by the D wing, enjoying a bit of sunshine. 3. Mark Freitas and Donny Price show off their muscles. 4. Dolly Williams does some studying. 5. Lorraine Fischer, a very good pinball player.

Certainly it is plain to see how each individual and all of the different things he does makes an impression. When we make an impression, we should stop to think as to what sort of an impression we have projected. Do other people consider our impressions good or bad? Have our reflections been deep and well-remembered or are they bad observations which are self-degrading not only to one's self but also to one's school? The answer is quite simple, everyone at Beyer has created their own positive and prime impression. The impressions that we have presented are looked-up to by others, and will certainly be remembered in the future years. The impressions that we create at Beyer are dignified, noble, and honorable. There is something spectacular about our school and it shows through the impressions we present. As one can see at Beyer, we outshine and surpass all other schools through the glorious impressions we make. One can always spot a Beyer patriot due to the radiant, bright, and illustrious impression he brings about. These impressions, that only a Beyer patriot can produce, are of course

STAR-SPANGLED IMPRESSIONS!

ACTIVITIES

THE LEADERSHIP OF 1984

By Laura Thompson Photographers Michelle Hall and Laura Reiff.

Over the year's, student government has become an important part of Beyer High School, and last year's council, led by Student Body President, Rob Glasgow, was no exception. Rob, who was vice-president his junior year, led the meetings, organized activities, and represented our school at various levels. The other members of the executive council, Vicki, Jill, Beth, and Vicki, had their own specific duties as well as the commitment to help their individual classes and Rob. In addition, much of the responsibility of student council lay within the individual class governments. This year's government was responsible for many dances, a successful can-food drive, the purchase of a new stereo for the gym, the plaque for Randall Garcia, and other assorted fund raisers, and community projects. Overall, student government, with advisor Mr. Ogden, accomplished many of the goals it set for itself and established new precedents along the way.

A Club of the Future

By: Kathy Olson Photos by: Bert Banderob and Doug Bates

The Computer Club is a club that was formed to create and develop interests in computers. The club is open to students in computer classes as well to students who aren't. It is for beginner and experienced students who want to do more with computers than play games. Next year the club plans to get a hard disk system, a modern hookup to the telecomputing network, and a timesharing central computer. In the future the club wants to set up several activities to help all levels of computer operators and programmers, and plans to be a fully active club.

An Amicable Ratiocinative Contestan . . .

The Stanislaus County Academic Decathlon covers ten tests, each with a maximum value of 1000 points. The eight written tests include math, science, English and literature, social sciences, career education and successful living, fine arts, essay writing and a super quiz event. The two spoken events involve speech making and an informal interview. To test the ability to communicate, each contestant presents two talks, writes an essay, and converses with adult judges regarding extracurricular activities. The purpose of the academic decathlon are to: encourage students to develop a greater respect for knowledge; to promote wholesome inter-school competition in academic areas of study and interest; to stimulate intellectual growth and achievement; and to encourage public interest and awareness of outstanding programs in secondary schools.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVERS

By Laura Thompson, Photographers Rollin Banderob, and Michelle Hall

One of the busiest organizations at Beyer this year consisted of students who maintained above a 3.5 g.p.a. every semester. Beyer's CSF, The California Scholarship Federation was led by President Michelle Rhyu and the dedicated advisor, Ms. Kimball. In addition to holding weekly meetings, completing community projects, having fund raisers, and taking field trips, this academic organization had the duty of organizing this year's CSF Conference. This conference, with the theme of 1984, was held on April 7 and had David Trozak and Robert Glasgow as its candidates for the mock presidential election. Guest speakers were also planned for the function, as well as entertainment. Seniors who are members of CSF four out of the last six semesters of high school, are awarded life membership. This year, the class of 1984 produced more than twenty life members, who were recognized at graduation.

FROM ABROAD

By: Katy Van Konynenburg Photographer: Rollin Banderob

The American Field Service was highly active, again this year, with its exchange program. The purpose of A.F.S. is to send American students abroad and bring foreign students to the United States to spend a year full of new experiences in a different country. The club at Beyer, led by President Jennifer Laity and advisor, Bettylou Hampel, was the receiving end of the exchange this year. Although there were 10 exchange students, only one, Elisabetta Zara, came through the A.F.S. program. Beyer's club members raised money for some of Elisabetta's activities such as her senior trip, yearbook, and student body card. The other foreign students either came independently or through Y.F.U., however, they also were encouraged to join in the club's activities.

Key Club

By, Liz Cisneros

The Key Club is also a club which helps the community a great deal as well as the school. The Kiwanis mens club gives the club a great deal of support. The Key Club has put on a great deal of fund raisers and given the school a great deal of spirit and help in putting on dances and also helped the school in their overtimes, overall this is the club to be in if your really interested in helping the school.

THE CHOSEN ONES

By: Katy Van Konynenburg Photographer: Rollin Banderob

Each year eight girls are selected by teachers and counselors to represent Beyer at a leadership conference, Asilomar, in the spring of their junior year. This year's group had many responsibilities, the most important being the selection of a candidate to run for the office of her choice. The candidate this year, who ran for secretary, was Susan Irving. The theme of the conference was "Going for the Gold." As well as the eight junior girls, two exchange students and the group's advisors, Margo Cadoret and Carol Bradley, attended the conference.

1. Two of the "chosen ones." 2. A big smile from Janine. 4. The morning of the shanghai. 5. One of the exciting meetings.

3. Lisa Nicholas, Janine Crumpley, Annette Siegel, Elisabetta Zara, Kristina Anderson, Susan Hill, Brownwyn Flint, Mo Nicholas, Susan Irving, Stacey Stuart.

JEANNIE'S JETS

By: Katy Van Konynenburg Photographer: Rollin Banderob

The Senior Asilomar girls were last year's "chosen" juniors. They represented Beyer at the Asilomar Conference in Monterey in 1983, and returned as seniors this year. Jeannie Betschart was selected as last year's candidate and ran for the office of publicity. The group's main purposes were to help the junior girls in any way possible and to raise money for the conference. Over all, Jeannie's Jets had a terrific time this year and worked well as a group.

Discovering New Concepts

Science Club is exactly what it sounds like—a club for students interested in science. Mr. Gohring has been the advisor of science club since it was started in 1977. This year's president was Jennifer Laity, while the vice-presidency was held by Dave Trozak. This organization met approximately once a month and discussed new scientific areas, field trip possibilities, and community projects. The group also planned a trip to Yosemite, as well as to a scientific establishment in San Fransisco. As one can see, science club did accomplish quite a bit through the 83-84 school year.

From Geometry To Calculus

By Laura Thompson Photographer Michelle Hall

Though this was not one of Math Club's busiest years, it still accomplished many of its goals and participated in several functions. The members of this organization, led by president Darrin Judkins and advisor Mr. Tway, competed in various tests such as the C.M.L.(the California Mathematical League), the Atlantic-Pacific Tests, and the Brother Alfred Tests. In addition, Beyer's Math Club took part in the annual math superbowl which was held at Stanislaus State. Besides taking tests and solving math problems, this group planned a backpacking trip. Of course, Math Club had its share of fund raiders, and the more dedicated members(including Mr. Tway), went out and picked up walnuts, (counting along the way, of course).

This year's German Club was led by "Frau" Driscoll and it's student officers: President Harlan Ewert and vice-presidents Dana Armstrong and Steve Korn. One of the highlights of the year was the Oktoberfest in which members participated in various German activities. The club also had meetings where they baked German cookies. We wish this good luck in the years to come!

Le Club

The French Club did and planned to do a number of activities. A few of these were: a dinner and a Christmas party. There were plans for the club to take a field trip to San Francisco to visit some of the numerous French sites, like a French newspaper, a French embassy, museums, and various places. The club was headed up by Mrs. Yagi and elected officers.

Putting alot of effort forward preparing for a show the drama club puts 4 hours a day into their work, and this lasts about 5 or 6 weeks. The Beyer drama club has been around for years but not to active in the past few, but this year they came back showing alot of go for it. There has been alot of special talent from Dyke Dias and Charise Stone. They had alot fo fun performing in MASH, and are pleased with the way it turned out. There is competetion involved for scholarships, and between schools.

The types of songs you would here from these groups could be heard in the 1300's. They preform mostly love balads and classics. They practice from 3 to 4 hours a week and hours on their own at home. They make special preformances to civic clubs, festivles. Many of them plan to make a career of singing. Mrs. Trodsen feels there is no acceptional talent, just alot of special talent working together.

The Beyer High School Choir is made up of male and female vocalists. They perform in front of large audiences and sing many different types and styles of music. They have performed six concerts throughout the year. Beyers Fall and Spring concerts are a couple of them. The instructor of this spirited group is Mrs. Yvonne Troedson. We would like to congratulate Mrs. Troedson and her choir for their wonderful work.

New Look Guard Big Hit With Members

This year's Color Guard debuted a new look. According to band director Gary Gilroy, the guard "danced as well as they twirled." Consisting of only three seniors and twelve underclassmen, the girls worked to improve on a 57.7 score at the beginning of the season to finish the regular series of competition with an 83.5. The guard was an entertaining one, and not even a little rain could spoil the fun for the girls. Mud soaked and loving every minute of it, they rose to their very best at Music Bowl and finished the fall season above cross-town rival Modesto High.

Beyer forensics' outstanding reputation is well known throughout California. The 1983-84 competitive year was very successful do to the culmination of hard work by the students and most importantly by instructor Ron Underwood. Within the Yosemite Forensic League, Beyer is NUMBER 1! In addition to league competition, the speech team attends many invitational tournaments. Beyer won first place in the U.S.F. Tournament, the M.J.C. Tournament, and the Cal Poly tournament to name just a few. Beyer was also the host of both the N.F.L. State Qualifier for individual events and the N.F.L. District Congress this year. The highpoint of each year comes in May with the State Speech Tournament, held this year at the University of Santa Clara, and the National Speech Tournament in June, which will be held in Texas.

This year's speech section in the yearbook is dedicated to the efforts put forth by all involved in forensics at Beyer . . . a day in the life of a speechie . . .

Something Fishy

By: Monica Toledo Pictures 1 and 2 taken by Modesto Bee 3 and 4 by Gary Zimmerman Photography

The fly fishermen's club is a fairly new club here at Beyer. It was started by a group of boys with special interests in this sport. You may be wondering "What exactly is fly fishing?" Well it is a form of fishing that involves special casting techniques. Fly fishermen try to imitate insects or small baitfish with "flies". Even though every current club member is a boy, this club is open to girls as well. They took trips as often as possible, usually to local reservoirs or mountain streams. In addition to fishing, this organization also learned a lot about the outdoors and conservation. If you have a special interest in fly fishing, or you would like to learn about it, you should seriously consider joining the fly fishermen's club.

This year was the first year that Beyer had a photo club. The club was established by Mr. Davajon. The Photo Club met every Monday morning before school and every Friday after school to discuss and compare their work. The purpose and main goal of the photo club is to learn to become outstanding craftsmen in the art of photography. Although this was a small club with only 8 members, they had a successful year.

Under Construction

By: Stacey Lee Photos By: Michelle Hall

The construction and making of the yearbook is a very complex and time consuming job. A great amount of hard work and dedication are the keys to building a good yearbook. While some people may think of yearbook as just an easy class where one can "kick back and take it easy", nothing could be farther from the truth. In this class one must learn how to be responsible as well as totally dedicated to the yearbook. That means coming in on weekends and vacations just to see that all layouts are completed. There are an endless number of problems to solve, starting with finding a theme for the yearbook. Then there's the drawing of rough layouts, struggling to write copy, having pictures taken and then cropping them, and finally completing the finished layout. This year's staff of 22 people (only 5 of which had any previous yearbook experience) was headed by Stacey Lee(Editor), Kevin Duden (Co-Editor), and Mr. Douglas Bates(Advisor). Kevin designed the cover of the yearbook and checked to see that all layouts were drawn correctly. While some members of the staff failed to meet their responsibilities, it was Stacey who stepped in and took over, making sure that the job was done completely and correctly. It was Stacey's job to make sure that the entire yearbook was done. It is plain to see the pressures and headaches involved in the production of a yearbook, but seeing the end result somehow makes it all worthwhile.

Producing a high school newspaper is a big responsibility. This years Courier staff was very well organized. The staff was ambitious and enthusiastic and in result of that they pulled together and produced the very first 20 page newspaper in the history of the Courier. The Editorial staff included 6 editors. They were: Managing editor Patrick Elias, Michelle Hall, Kim Watson, Lisa Bledsoe, and Becky Waddle. Together they put together and distributed a total of 12 newspapers. The Courier is an important source of information for Beyer's students and Faculty.

The Graphics Club was actually a first period class for it's members, most of which were graphics 5 students. Let the Chips Fly!

Work started slow this year and mushroomed to more than the club could handle. With only 4 members: Robin Welch, David Gilmore, Matt Lindsey, and Doug Bates their advisor, most of the time, each member had to work on all phases of production. A club member may have to work on planning, layout, cutting, assembly, detailing, or finishing, depending on the need that day. They had under contract this year, a teacher's podium, portable speaker units for the student body, shelving units for auto class, a sewing cabinet unit for private home use, and a shelf unit for the yearbook class. Plans started early this year for that end of the year field trip to the mountains or the ocean. Proceeds from the sale of the cabinets help offset the expenses for the trip each year.

The Blazing Crutches is a club which consisted of ten members. The club was established to make the entire student body and staff aware of the capabilities as well as the problems of the orthopedically handicapped. It was also developed to promote the social and physical wellbeing for these students. The club met every other Monday fifth period to discuss fundraising. They had many fundraisers as well as donations from various service groups. Their funds were used for the Wheelchair Olympics, and also saving money for a new computer and synthesizer. On April 7th the club went on a field trip to tour the capitol in Sacramento.

Patriotic Patriots!

Knickers, bunny suits, fish net stockings . . . These were just a few of the many disguises of our own patriot mascots. Since anyone can remember, the Beyer mascots have always added something special to our school, and with each year they seem to get better. Leslie Albino and Leanne Lacazotte have put forth their enthusiasm and helped to make our school spirit soar. Always smiling, laughing and being outgoing helped add an extra charm to these mascots. Both Leslie and Leanne are seniors and both have previously been cheerleaders before being chosen as our mascots. These two do cheers, routines, and their own little skits. They also dress funny on dress-up days, yell loud at games and rallies, and promote Beyer's spirit wherever they go. So next time you see two gals in knickers, a vest, preppy shoes, and a crazy hat, don't think that our school is being taken over, it's just our "Patriotic Patriots"!

VARISTY SONGLEADERS

They danced, they sang, they yelled up and down the halls, yes I am talking about the Varsity Cheerleading Squad. The Cheerleaders this year spent many long hard hours working on routines, planning rallies, and rooting for the Beyer athletic clubs. With the help of their advisor, Sherri Fontana, they proved to be one of the best squads ever produced by Beyer High School. Beyer's Cheerleaders went the U.S.A. Cheerleading Camp where they competed with other squads. We at Beyer are proud to say that our cheerleaders walked home with a Spirit Stick, which is only awarded to the most spirited squad.

This year Sally Jamieson was in charge of Sophomore Cheerleading. The Squad consisted of six spirited girls whose names are Claudia DeAnda, Kristi Rush, Jennifer Siegrist, Theresa Zellers, Danielle Izack, and Priscilla Ikenberry. All of these girls spent many long hours after school practicing their cheers and routines. These girls were also an enthusiastic bunch that kept us alive and cheering all year long at every game and rally. The Sophomore class should be very proud of their cheerleaders this year!

Best Season In Years

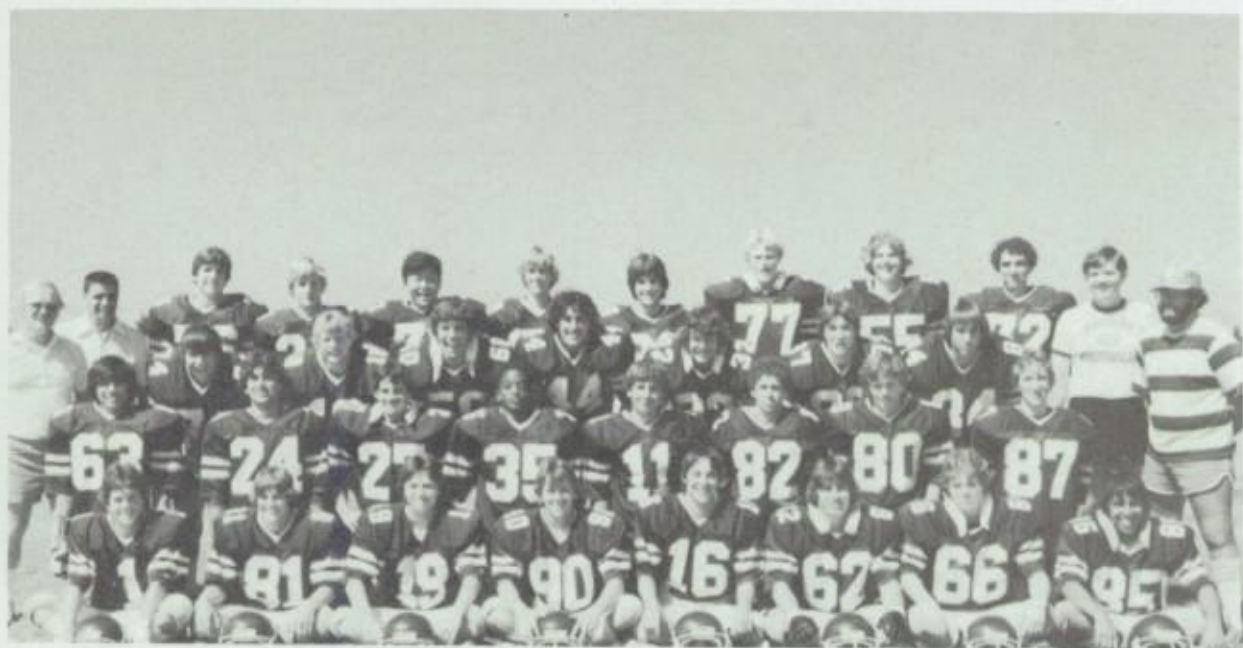

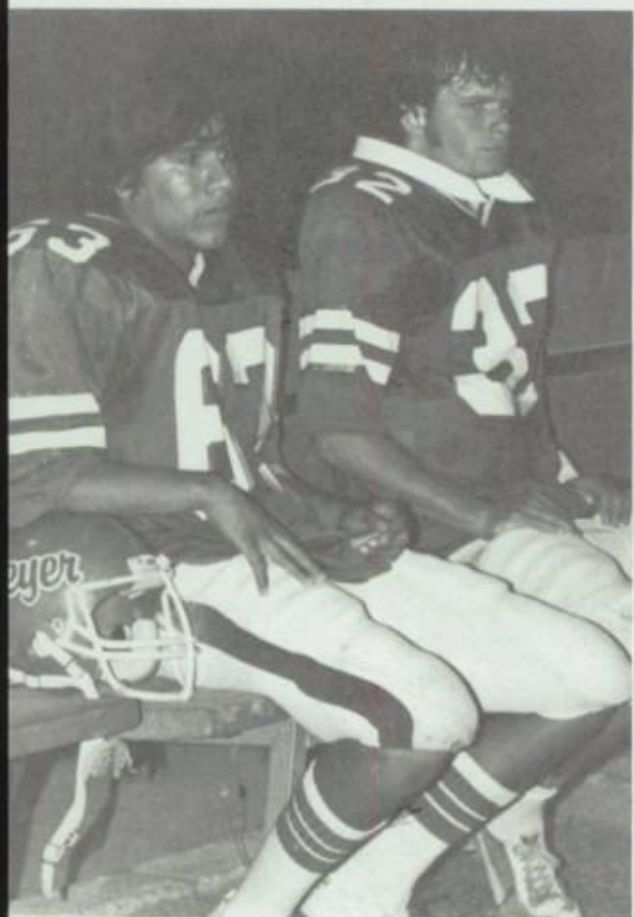

By: Julie Norquist Photos by: Rollin Banderob and Kevin Duden

The 1983-84 Varsity football team was a unique and very hard working squad. Though the team was very small, they gave a 100% effort. The team had great determination as shown by the closeness of the scores. Whether they won or lost, they always came out on top. It was very disappointing for many of the players not to win the C.C.C., considering they dominated the field both their freshmen and sophomore years. Due to the fact many of the players didn't or couldn't return to the field this year, the outcome of the games are understandable. However, Beyer had the best season in years with an overall record of 3-6-1. The coaching staff of John Sai, Harold Crumpley, Dave Cheney, and John Miller found it very difficult to find players to fill the positions of those who left the team. Norman Fahey, Chad George, Ron Jacobsen, and Scott Linzy contributed 110% in making this team successful. A big effort was also made by Kent Maurice, Scott Lemay, and Robert Doman. Like always dedication and hard work made this team better than ever.

Successful Sophomores

By Kevin Duden Photos by Rollin Banderob and Kevin Duden

This year's sophomore football team started out the year by winning Downey and Davis in pre-season scrimmages. In their first season game they lost their starting quarterback, Jim Yanko, to injuries. Considering that, they did very well. The team finished the year with a 6-4 "over-all" record and a 3-2 league record, which earned them second place in the C.C.C. They also became "City Champs" by winning all the other Modesto teams. Most of these sophomores will go on to become varsity team members and continue to play excellent football.

PROUD FRESHMEN

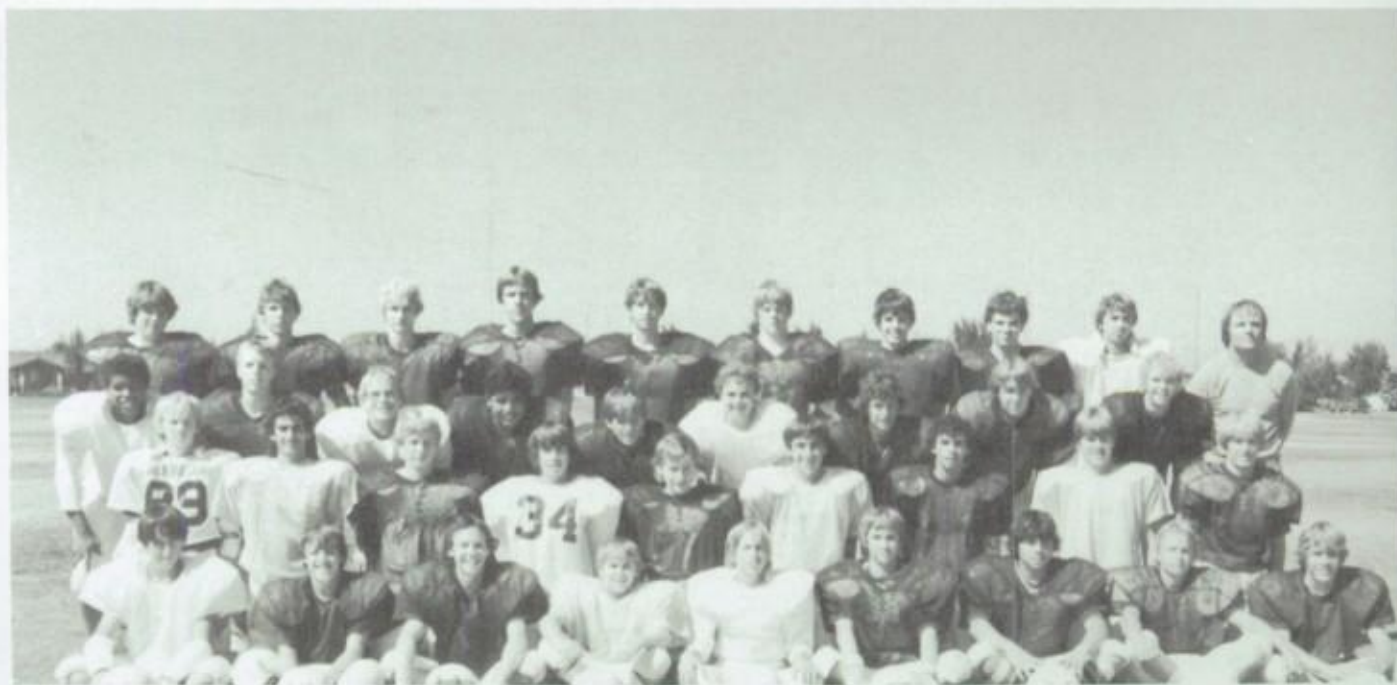

By: Monica Toledo Photos by: Rollin Banderob

This year the freshmen football team was led by Mr. Mike Pavco. The team consisted of over 50 players, one of the biggest teams Beyer has seen in a long time. Even though they practiced long hard hours, they suffered a very disappointing season. Their record was 2-5-1. Mr. Pavco said, "Even though we lost a majority of our games all the boys had good attitudes and were very confident." Some of the key players were Mark Schnapf, noted for his catching ability, Ken Scott for his defensive tackling, Earl Bowser because he was a good linebacker, and Jeff Lemay for his speed in tight situations.

This years freshmen basketball team was made up of fifteen dedicated players who learned how to make hard work pay off. Not only did they win first place in the City Schools Tournament, they also landed second place in the Central California Conference. As Mr. Taylor, the teams coach, put it, "We got solid contriubtions from everyone, whether in practice or at a game, and because of this we had, what I would consider, a successful season." The teams ending season record was 11-6.

Short on Experience, Long on Desire

Under the direction of Mr. Rex Holm, the Sophomore Basketball team ended the season with a record of 3 wins and 12 losses (overall 7 wins and 20 losses). The team gave great effort and strong performances by Kevin Laugero-guard, Matt Davis-forward, and Jim Yanko-forward. Voted by the team members as most valuable was Marc Dantzler, while Brandy Lee was voted most improved. According to coach Holm, "This year's team was very inexperienced, with many individuals having very little game experience. These individuals plus the team as a whole developed into a very competitive unit as the year progressed."

A Rough and Dissapointing Season

By: Michelle Hall Photos by: Michelle Hall

This was a very dissapointing year for varsity basketball with a record of 5 wins and 21 losses. Although they had a rough year, they claimed the un-official East Modesto championship by beating Downey two out of three times, both times by one point. Other bright spots were Harlan Ewart and Mike Mchann. Ewert was honorable mention all league with a 56% field goal percentage and 101 free throws to set a school record for the most free throws in a season. Although Mchann missed 16 games due to an ankle injury he was the leading scorer in the league with 15.1 points per game averaged and 82% free throws. Other outstanding team members were Greg Washler, Tony Lopez, and speedy Sam Arikat dishing out assists. Ewert and Mchann were voted co-Most Valuable players and Sam Arikat was voted Most Improved. This years team was dampered by many illnesses and injuries ranging from broken fingers to pneumonia. Hopefully next year will be more successful.

"Dedication"

By Laura Reiff

This years Varsity Team, led by Coach Pavko, showed more dedication than any other he has had. Whether they were ahead or losing this team's dedication and spirit kept them going. The team consisted of no seniors or returning players from previous years. The awards went to "Most Valuable Player", Kim Circle, and "Most Improved" Elaine Burkett and Andrea Loretelli.

"Looking Good"

By Laura Reiff

This years J.V. Team, led by Coach Redell, was basically a building year. Building year for upcoming years. Due to great coaching, this team is well groomed for next year, but will miss their most valuable player, Traci Bracco. Her experience on the J.V. team will be a definite plus for next years Varsity. The Coach looks forward to Barbara Blakeslie, Amy Freeman and Katy McKwitte for next year.

Moving Up

The 1983-84 Junior Varsity team did very well this year. J.V played in Hartwell with no substitutes to relief. They took second place in a tough championship game. The J.V. that passed them for first place was made up of Juniors, so we should be proud of our Beyer players for showing dedication and unity. J.V. took charge, and won Merced for a tournament win. Congratulations J.V.

A Splashy Season

By: Tammy Lopez photos by: Michelle Hall

This years 1983-84 Varsity Waterpolo team had a very good year. The Varsity team started a senior, three juniors, and three sophomores. Varsity played close game this year, and the scores could have gone either way. Beyer in an early tournament this year went into overtime with Lodi which won sections this year. Coach Edwards is pleased with his team this year and pointed out that the most valuable player this year was Jim O'Connel, and most improved were Tim Olyphant, Skip Smith, and Steve Stoll.

Good Sportsmanship

By Kevin Duden Photos by Michelle Hall

This year's varsity volleyball team finished the year with a 0-15 record and were winners of the Sportsmanship Award at the Summerville Tournament. Their record may not show it, but Coach Sue Starling still considered her players as winners, saying, "They are a group of girls with good attitudes and a lot of dedication." Most Valuable Player was Kelly Hubbard. Most dedicated was Brigett Daniels. Most Improved was Michelle Wagner.

This years Junior-Varsity volleyball team finished the year with a 1-14 record. Like the Varsity team, they came home with the Sportsmanship Award from the Summerville tournament. The J.V. team is the place where the players learn the basics and the ins and outs of the competitive game of volleyball. This dedicated team was coached by Kim Buccio, and was led by Most Valuable-Rose Miceli and Most Improved-Aimee Fleeman. Overlooking their record, this team is considered a team of winners because it's made up of Beyer High Patriots.

Great Record!

By Brant Fether Photos By Laura Reiff

The 1983-84 cross-country season is considered the most outstanding in Beyer High School's History. All five divisions of Beyer's cross-country team did extremely well, especially the freshman boys and freshman-sophomore girls. This was the first year cross-country had a substantial amount of runners on the team. Coach Glen Davis is mostly responsible for the number of participants, he decided to have the basketball players attend cross-country as a part of their conditioning program. Mr. Davis organized three group categories each at different levels of performance. The first squad consisting of excellent runners interested in competing against other runners, the second category made up of good runners participating at a less competitive speed, and group three included slower runners conditioning for good health. Most of the runners agree this year was successful, exciting, and rewarding.

Commitment Brings Success

By Brant Feather Photos By Rollin Banderob

Most people involved in track this year know that commitment and personal goals will bring success not only to themselves, but to their entire team. The Beyer Track Team is lead by Rich Gunther, new to the Beyer Faculty this year. Mr. Gunther and the other track coaches such as Bill Gillingham, Frank Moore, and Dave Williams feel a track athlete's performance and success are dependent on their concentration, training and commitment to this exciting sport.

C.C.C. Champs!!

By Julie Norquist, Photos by Roland Banderob

The boy's varsity soccer team has always been known to have a powerful and talented team. This year was no exception. As usual their overall record was quite impressive with an 18-4 season. In league their record was 13-2. In league the team lost only two games, One to Merced, and one to Davis. Even with their defeats, Beyer still won the C.C.C. Over Christmas vacation there was a rotary Tournament, and Beyer cleaned up winning the last game against Davis 4-0. The team was divided into many different ages, mainly varsity players. There was seven seniors on the team with most of them starting. With the help of coach Jim Pfaff, and 100% coming out of each player, Beyer had a successful season.

J.V. Soccer

The junior varsity team got off to a very good start however later on in the season a few of the players dropped the team and the rest of their season didn't turn out as well as the beginning had. But even though the team's members decreased they put out their best effort and did a good job representing the patriots.

Going All The Way

Girls Soccer did extremely well this year. With a record of 9-1, they are tied for first place. The team has placed second for the last two years and this is the closest they came to becoming the C.C.C. Champs. Their coach, Donna Osborne, is the first and only coach Beyer Girls Soccer has had. She has been here for three years. It was great team effort and good coaching that makes the Beyer Girls Soccer team successful.

The 1983-84 Girl's Tennis Team has seen the most successful tennis season in the history of Beyer High School. Determination combined with the natural ability of each player brought about the team's outstanding record of 17-0. Debbie Rule, a junior, was again the top player on the team. She was undefeated and went on to win the CCC singles championship again this year. The second and third seed players, Beth Conmy and Alaine Burkett, have also shown how tough they can be on the court with only two losses between them. Equally great performances have been demonstrated by the doubles teams consisting of Tracy Venturini, Audra Burkett, Emilie Nelson, and Diane Levin. Congratulations to Coach Meinhardt and the entire team for a #1 tennis season.

The Beyer Boy's Tennis Team has always been a top competitor in its league, and this year was no exception. Tom Bone, the #1 player, had to work very hard to hold his position as he was challenged often by Jeff Earle and other team members. Through the endurance and determination of each player, the team had an excellent season. Cortland Meinhardt, coaching the team for the second year in a row, was extremely proud of the effort displayed by this year's team.

The Beyer Wrestling team should be congratulated for their accomplishment this year of a 7-2 score. Coach Doug Severe had help from JJ Gonzalas, and Brad Keith who did a great job with the team. This year two seniors Dennis Dias and Norbert Mendonca and junior Jim Hickman were known as the chain gang and had an exceptional season. The Grapplers were put under alot of pressure being one of the few sports with a winning season. Congratulations!

The Team To Beat

By Kevin Duden Photos by Michelle Hall

This year's Freshmen Baseball team looked very promising. They won Davis 9-0 in a pre-season scrimmage and 8-2 in a league game. A few of the players that stood out this year were: Tim Phillips, Earl Bowser, Brian DeYoe, Stephan Aguilera, and Dan Mead. Coach Terry Collins remarked, "We are not strong in any specific areas, but we are also not weak in any." He also went on to say, "We are the team to beat!"

No Striking Out With Sophomore

By Bryan Spitulski

Beyer's Sophomore baseball team started the year with their new coach Dan Branco. Dan is leading the sophomore team to a very glorious year. The team has some of the wildest players, but still hopes to keep up on the wins and have a great time. According to Dan "the team is very good". We wish Dan Branco the best of luck in the up coming years.

Super Outlook For Varsity Baseball

By Melocha Davis Photos by Rollin Banderob and Michelle Hall

The 1984 Varsity Baseball team was made up of both a strong team effort and the coaching staff of Paul Cornwell and assistant coach Rick Snow. This will be Mr. Cornwell's ninth year coaching Varsity baseball at Beyer and Rick Snow played here five years ago when Beyer won league two years in a row. Bright prospects opened up the league season with an upset victory over Merced at 4-0. Going into league play, leading hitters were Jeff Colcleasure, with a batting average of .425, Ken Hageman .415, Eddie Scoto .390, and Dan Lombardi .380. Pitching was done by junior Jimmy Colcleasure and Gary Mattison, senior pitchers were Scott Richardson and Ross Hanstad, with Todd Clark being in relief. The catching was done by returning senior Jeff Colcleasure. This year's team has the potential to be winners and if the team can stay healthy and eligible, they are capable of making it for the fourth time in the section playoffs, or possibly more.

J.V. Girls Softball

By Laurie Akers. Pictures taken by Roland Banderob.

This years girls softball team consisted of sixteen players. They all tried very hard and succeeded in making this year one of their best. They had to practice for long hours after school with their coach Mrs. Sue Starling. The pitcher of the team is Renee Davis. Renee and the rest of the team all gave their effort and showed their spirit for Beyer. Good Going Team!

At the beginning of the softball season the varsity girls had a wish. They wished to play this season the very best they could and to have as many victories as possible. The coach Mrs. Sue Starling, thinks that if the girls put a lot of time, effort, and hard work into their practices that they can make this wish come true. We hope this spirited team can reach this goal that they set for themselves. Good Luck!

DEDICATED TO DIVING

By: Stacey Lee Photos By: Michelle Hall

The diving team is a very important part of any swim team. Under the direction of coach Ken Edwards, the diving team spent many long hours of practice in the pool in order to perfect their dives. This year there were six divers. Returning from last year were juniors Jerry Damron and Dorina Golpashin, and also senior Greg Scoggin. The three new freshmen divers who joined the team were Scott Hermann, Heather Housewright, and Steve Montgomery. In every swim meet our diving team came through displaying their excellent form and ability.

MAKING A BIG SPLASH

It seems as though each year our swim team keeps growing larger and larger. This year Beyer's swim team was comprised of mostly freshmen, as the number of froshoph swimmers outnumbered the junior and senior returnees. Some of the outstanding swimmers on the Boys Varsity team were Robert Doman, Rob Glasgow, John Monnich, and Jim O'Connell. Kathy Doman and Alison Link proved to be valuable members on the Girls Varsity team. In the opening of the first (league) swim meet, the Boys Varsity team beat Davis 94 to 78

Although most of the Golf team consisted of freshmen this year they did well. Coach Koski believes that in two years the team will be at its best, with high hopes of competing in the state finals. This team practices two to three hours a day at various golf courses in the area. One of the major goals of the season was to beat Merced.

The Beyer advanced gymnastics class is made up of thirty-six students, and is coached by Mieke Bray. They practiced one hour each day to perfect their skills as gymnasts. The team presented assemblies to Beyer and other local schools where they showed off their skills on the parallel bars, the balance beam, the vault, and floor exercises. The assemblies were accompanied by the Beyer Choir which provided music while the students performed.

This year the Beyer High Wheelchair Patriots participated in three competitions. The events took place in Stockton, Fresno, and Modesto. Mr. Koski, the teams coach describes the meets very close and "down to the wire". They won the San Joaquin Valley Wheelchair Athletic Conference in 1983, and this year they were undefeated. Voted Most Improved Player was Ken Burks, and Most Valuable Player was Dennis Sanson. Wheelchair Athlete of the Year was awarded to Nancy Taylor.

Don't Forget To Dance . . .

by Michelle Hall

For the first time in ten years spectators of Friday night sports events had a chance to put on their dancing shoes and dance the night away. This year our booster club put on several "5th Quarter" dances. These were very successful. They only cost a dollar, and they always provided chaperones. More expensive dances were put on by clubs such as the Key Club and Student Government, where live bands provided entertainment instead of D.J.'s.

1984 Spring

Being chosen to represent Beyer's spring royalty is a great honor, and for the spring of 1984 the honor went to Leslie Albino a senior who was chosen to be overall queen. Lisa Phipps for the wheelchair sports, Kara Wilson for basketball and Melissa Mendonca for wrestling, Tracy Edwards was the Cast Your Dreams Before They Slip Away!

By: Monica Toledo Photos by: Monica Toledo

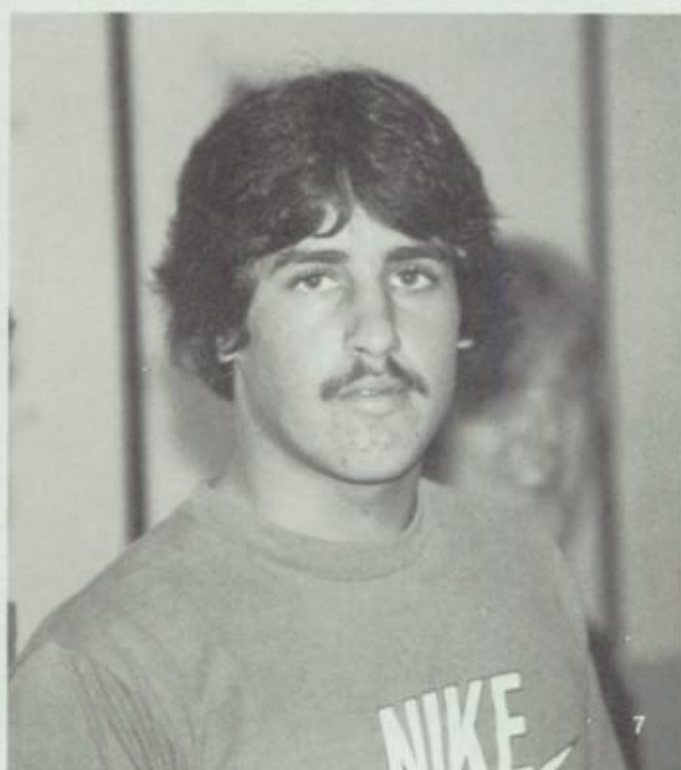

In 10 years from now, I see myself. . .

Jackie Adamo- married, with a good job and a few kids.
 John Alves- married, solving problems, writing plays and having a few kids.
 Sue Bell- a business manager and married.
 Susan Billington- married, and with a good job making lots of money.
 Tom Bone- as a happily married man, working for a construction company.
 David Camelio- hopefully with a good job and probably married.
 Sherri Campbell- a freelance photographer, with a small family living in the country.
 Liz Cisneros- a physical therapist and married.
 Jeff Colcleasure- the first man to step foot on the planet Mars with my dog Spot.
 Betsy Daleth- happily married, owning a successful accounting firm.
 Bill Delaplane- a happily married man with three kids and a full bushy beard.
 Carolyn Dorrity- a chiropractor married with a few kids living on the coast.
 Kevin Duden- a police officer, married, with at least five kids.
 Jaci Elliot- married, living in a huge house, with a couple of kids.
 Norman Fahey- still drinking beer.
 Patricia Hackett- filthy rich, on the arm of a gorgeous man, traveling all over the world.
 Michelle Hall- a photographer for Playgirl Magazine, and married to Rod Stewart.
 Lisa Hillstrom- happily married, just starting a family, and pursuing my career.
 Ron Jacobsen- still in college, getting a psycho-degree. I might be married to a gorgeous blonde.
 Mick Jagger- hiring Monica as my new road manager.
 Mark Layton- taking over my dad's roofing company and becoming a millionaire.
 Stacey Lee- as a flight attendant traveling around the world looking for a rich, handsome, and successful man.
 Allison Link- a top water polo player, scrounging for every penny to support my addiction to chlorine, sun, and swimmer hair.
 Todd Loyd- happily married with a wife and family.
 Evan Mack- a millionaire after inventing something everyone wants, or I will be an artist.
 Lisa Martin- married, living in a mansion, driving a Porsche.
 Beth Nagle- living in huge house in Malibu with my 65 year old husband.
 Jackie Norton- taking care of my horse ranch.
 Timothy Olvera- in a career in agriculture, with a family, and trying to better the world.
 Terry Perez- married to my dream man, living in a big house, and with a few kids.
 Jodi Pettingil- living in San Diego with my own travel agency, enjoying life.
 Dave Pollock- at home, married, watching football, and drinking Coors.
 Jill Powell- as a wife and a mother, traveling as much as possible.
 Scott Robinson- married with a child, in a career I want.
 Eddie Scoto- playing baseball for the Los Angeles Dodgers and married.
 Dannete Scot- living in Hawaii and having a good time with all the gorgeous guys.
 Danny Sievers- being very successful and happy, as well as having a fat pocketbook.
 Victoria Solario- with a job as a counselor, possibly married, but having a good time in life.
 Laurie Suniga- with a good career, happily married and well off in life.
 Monica Toledo- being hired Mick Jagger's road manager, also being president of the official Rolling Stones Fan Club.
 Beth Turdo- a dental assistant and happily married.
 Mychelle Webb- a preschool teacher and married.
 Cindy Wedge- married to an executive of a large company driving my 280 ZX, living in San Diego.
 Yolanda Wheeler- backing up Michael Jackson in his career of entertainment, also married to him.

I'm glad we've been good friends all this time. It's been a special friendship. I'm sorry for all the problems. But we had things happen and I'm sorry you weren't luck all day and I hope your worst dreams come true.

CLASS

The last four years we've spent here at Beyer will always be imbedded in our memories. Our freshman year was one of many changes. We were all new and lost in our unique Beyer High School. The class of '84 was also the last class to experience the much missed Daily Demand Scheduling. During our sophomore year, our sophomore football team won the CCC championship game against Davis. Our junior year we were all becoming more aware of what we wanted to do with our lives. We all were facing changes. Most of us were also relieved but frightened to know we only had one year of high school left. This year was one of challenges and goals we had set for ourselves. Many of us will be going on to junior colleges or even four year colleges, and facing greater academic challenges. Others will be working, going into the Service, or even getting married. The way in which we take charge of our challenges, our lives, and our futures is what makes us . . .

This years Junior class was one of the most spirited and enthusiastic classes ever. This years president was Deanna Messner. Although this was her first year participating in student government, she did a very good job. The junior class seemed to be more involved in clubs and other school related activities than ever before! They pulled together and put on a very successful junior-senior prom. It was plain to see that they have taken on the responsibilities, and learned to act like the young adults that they are.

This year's sophomore class "the class of 86" as they are called, is a rather large one. Sophomores seem to be proud of their class and each student has their own way of demonstrating this pride. The pride we are speaking of is our Patriot Pride. As time goes by, we hope that by the end of their senior year each and every student will know the real meaning of Patriot Pride. This year's sophomore class president was Beth Conmy. She and her fellow sophomore classmates had a very successful year by putting on various dances and holding a raffle.

If you had to describe Windy Coffey it would best be expressed through the French language. She enjoyed French a great deal and was admired by Pat Egenberger her junior high French teacher. Windy through her entire years of school earned straight A's, and was always on the honor roll. Windy was a very quiet and well behaved girl. Her mother stated, "Even as a child she never had to be corrected". When Windy would look at you she would look you directly in the eyes, and you knew she was paying attention. Windy also enjoyed the ocean and the outdoors a great deal, this interest was provided by her dad.

A great friend and will never be forgotten. Karen Rotherham.

An impressive hard working young lady. Somerset Teachers

Always careful, and responsible. Ellen Eilers.

Although our time together was much too brief, Windy enriched my life and memories of her generous sweet and loving nature will endure. Yvonne Pierron.

She was always there when you needed a friend, she would take the time to listen. Sandra Costa. Windy Coffey was a role model, a goal, to set for yourself through her personality, her kindness, and just being her friend. Stephanie Church.

We are grateful that we had the opportunity to know Windy. She was a very special person who brought much joy to our children. We all will miss her. Barbara and Roger Williams.

Windy's final tribute is the gift of life to two other people. Her kidneys were donated and will make life possible or better for two other people. Windy will continue to live and be treasured in the hearts of those recipients and those who knew her. We want her to be remembered as she was . . . special indeed. Jane Coffey.

The class of 1987 will remember their freshmen year as being unique in many ways. This year's freshmen seemed to be more sophisticated than the traditional lower class members, and it showed in their participation and enthusiasm. They were faced with many challenges. The minimum number of course units to graduate was increased from 210 to 220 units, and there were changes in the graduation requirements as well. The freshmen this year were into life in the fast lane, while upper-classes kicked back. Styles changed and students became more individualistic and everyone did their own thing. The freshmen were really active this year and it's obvious that Beyer has a great future ahead with the "Class of 1987".

THE CLASS OF 1984

By Laura Thompson and Katy VanKonynenburg Photographer Michelle Hall

This year's Senior Class Government started a new precedent by presenting Beyer's best Christmas Dance in December and hopefully a great graduation in June. One of the main reasons for the success and organization of the senior class was its president, Dave Trozak. Though this was Dave's first year in Beyer's government, he's been concerned about the school since his arrival in 1982. Along with Dave were the senior and inter-high reps: Mireya Vargas, Katy Van Konynenburg, Laura Thompson, Jim O'Connell, Vicki McBride, Harlan Ewert, and Liz Allewelt. In addition to a successful Christmas Dance (both monetarily and socially), this class government also produced an awesome homecoming float, and an original senior gift.

3. Who's got the power in Senior Class Government?
4. The Senior Class Fall Homecoming Float
5. The Senior Christmas Dance Band-Penny Lane

JUNIORS

The Junior-Senior Prom, the biggest and most expensive dance of the year, was the sole responsibility of the Junior Class Government. Consequently, Junior Class President, Dee Messner, and the Junior Class Representatives; Mark Alexander, Debbie Brooks, Valli Israels, Mark Melkonian, John Monnich, and Joni Salyer, spent much of their free time this year organizing the dance and raising the money for its production. In addition, this energetic junior class also built a homecoming float and participated in student government projects.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class Government, led by their spirited president, Beth Conmy, had the responsibility of organizing the fall Homecoming Dance this year. The seven reps; Jeff Robinson, Marla Reed, Rose Miceli, Ruth Melkonian, Diane Levin, Julie Jeppson, and Diane Duffey, also contributed a great deal to the success of their original fund raisers and activities. Overall, the "Always Friendly" Sophomore Student Council represented the Class of 1986 extremely well.

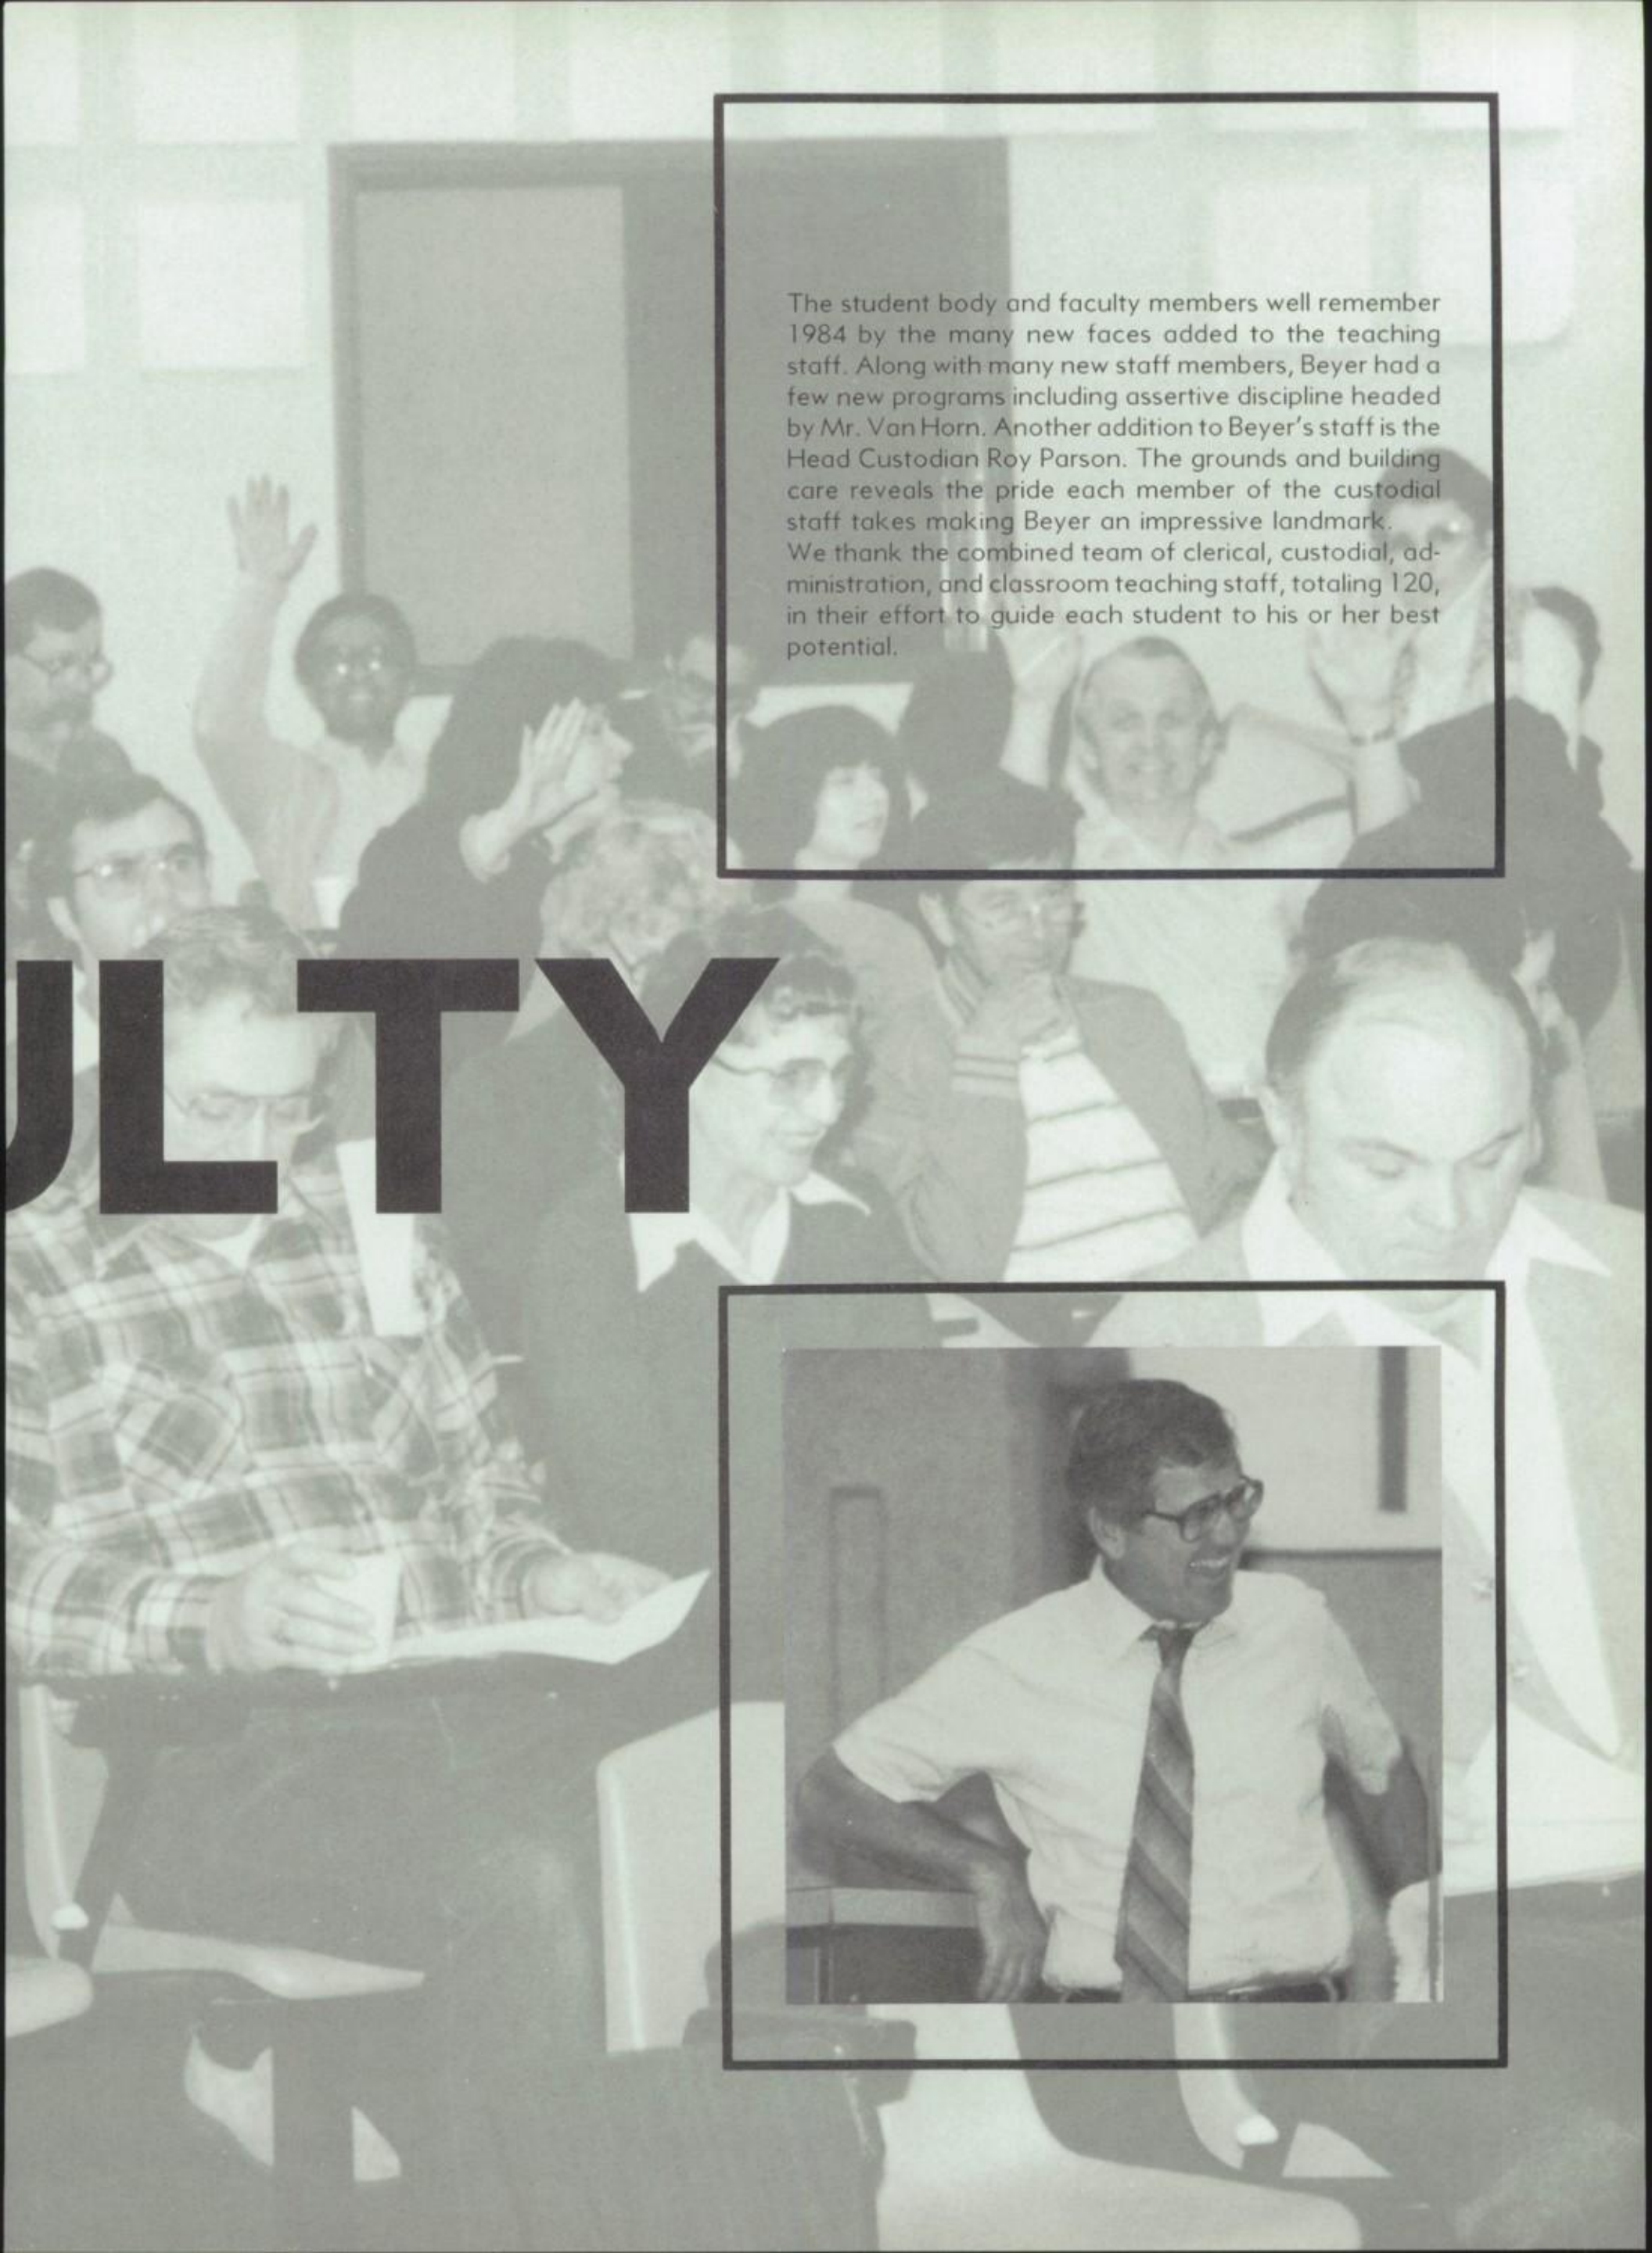

FRESHMEN

For the first time in Beyer's history, the Senior Class can graduate with the feeling of satisfaction that Beyer's Student Government will continue to make progress due to the remarkable leadership portrayed in the Freshmen Class. Their President, Kristin Glasgow, along with her representatives; Brian Bartholomew, LeAnn George, Katie Hanstad, Karen Miscisin, Emilie Nelson, Ivy Brooks, and Mark Van Konynenburg, had the responsibility of producing the Sadie Hawkins Dance, the number-one voted float, and the fund raisers which helped to support these activities.

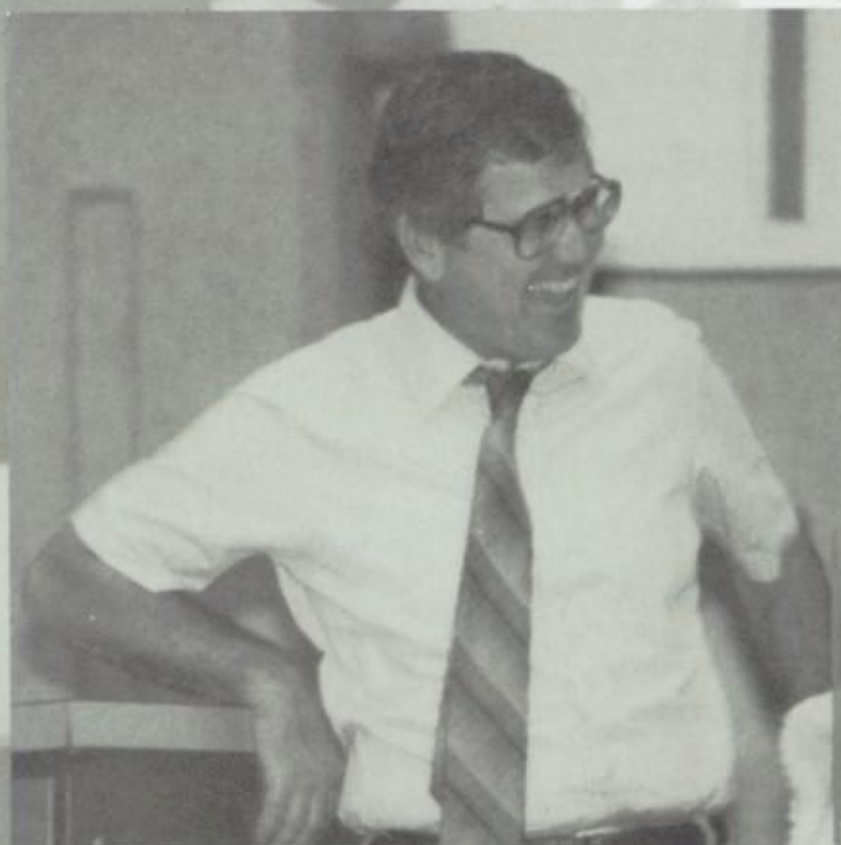

FACU

The student body and faculty members well remember 1984 by the many new faces added to the teaching staff. Along with many new staff members, Beyer had a few new programs including assertive discipline headed by Mr. Van Horn. Another addition to Beyer's staff is the Head Custodian Roy Parson. The grounds and building care reveals the pride each member of the custodial staff takes making Beyer an impressive landmark. We thank the combined team of clerical, custodial, administration, and classroom teaching staff, totaling 120, in their effort to guide each student to his or her best potential.

The 1984 Stars and Stripes Yearbook Staff would like to thank all of our sponsors and merchants for their generous contributions this year. Beyer's Annual Publication would not be possible without the help of the Valley's business community and families. In the future, we would like to encourage others to participate in Beyer's programs to unite our school with the community. We appreciate your continued support and pride in the Beyer High School Yearbook.

A Year To Remember!

By Kevin Duden

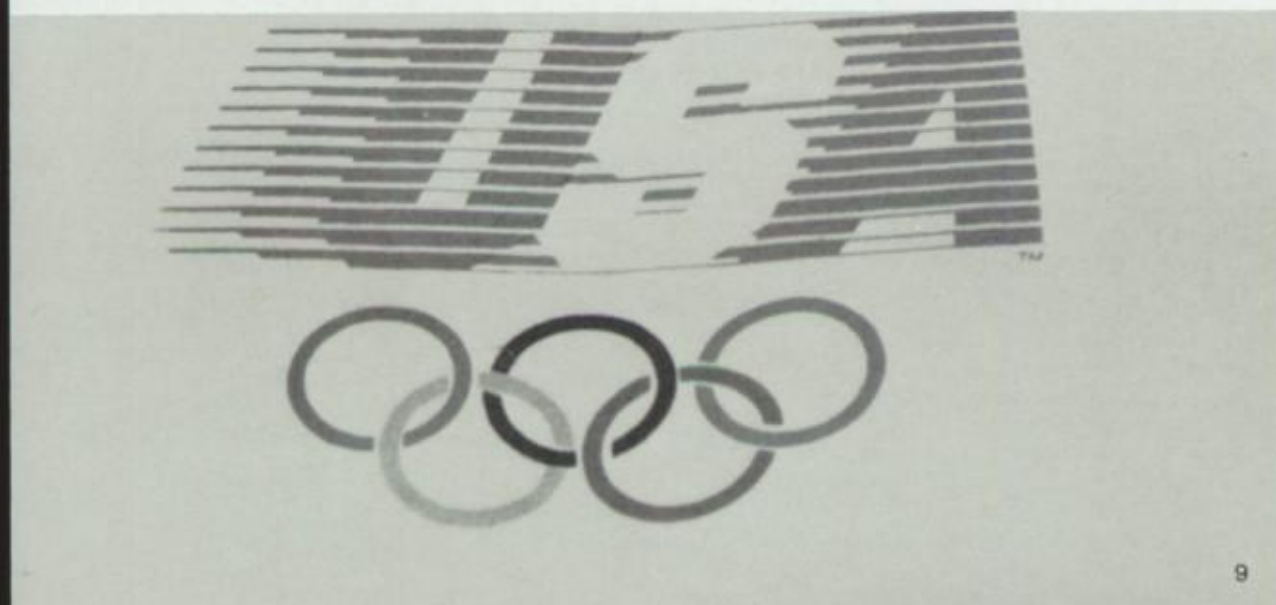

These are just a few of the year's memorable events. Most of the events seemed to involve death and destruction. Yet there were a few that were joyful and showed us that good things still happen in this world. (1) Ronald Reagan, elected Man of the Year (2) On Oct. 23, 1983, a truck carrying explosives slammed into the Marine Headquarters in Lebanon, killing 239 Americans (3) Yuri Andropov, Man of the Year w/Reagan, died in early 1984 (4) On Oct. 25, 1983, U.S. Marines invaded the island of Grenada (5) Jesse Jackson w/Lt. Robert Goodman, the pilot he rescued from Syrian capture (6) A Korean airliner like the one which was shot down by a Soviet missile, killing 269 people (7) Dr. Sally Ride became the first American woman in space.

8

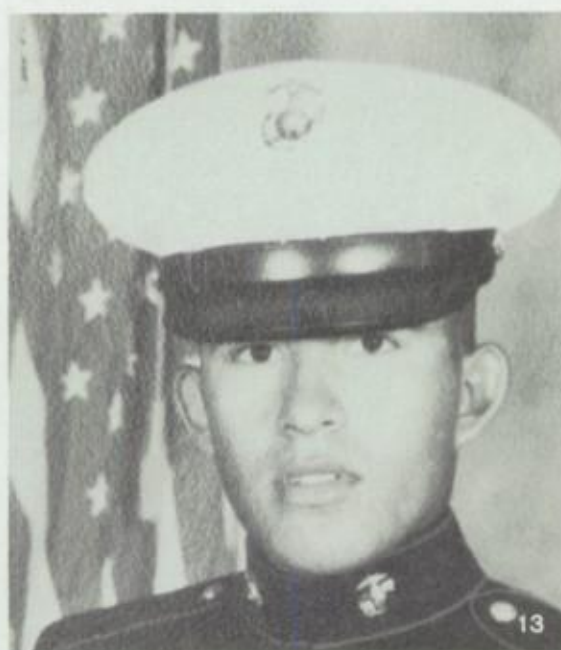

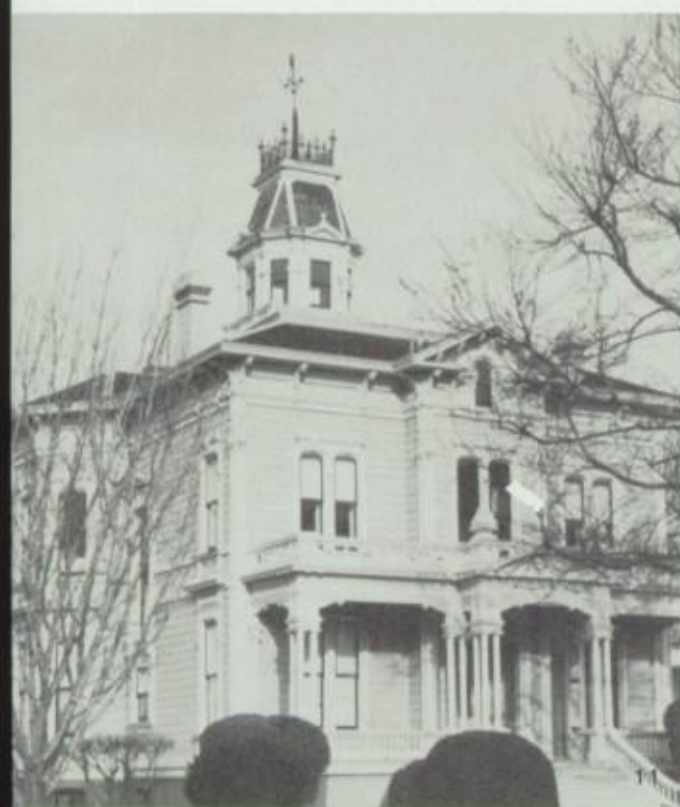

(8) Superstar Michael Jackson created a sensation in the music industry with his "Thriller" album (9) The U.S. won many medals at the 1984 Winter Olympics held in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia. The Summer Olympics are to be held in Los Angeles, California (10) The Christmas gift most wanted by children was the Cabbage Patch doll. People waited in long lines to pay outrageous prices for the doll (11-12) The McHenry Mansion was refurbished and opened to the public as a museum. People could then see what Modesto was like at the time the mansion was built (13-15) Randall Garcia, a Beyer graduate, was killed in the terrorist bombing attack on the U.S. Marines in Lebanon. His family attended a dedication to Randall at Beyer. A plaque and a tree were dedicated in memory of him (16) Beyer finally put up a fence around the Varsity baseball field. It not only improved the looks of the field, but also gave our players something to hit the ball over.

Kevin Duden: Co-Editor: Designed the cover of the yearbook checked all layouts as well as worked on some.

Brant Fether: Classes & Faculty Ed: Did faculty section, was also responsible for our ad section, also sold the most ads.

Monica Toledo: Circulation Ed: In charge of fundraising, was responsible for the selling and distribution of the yearbook, worked on the Soph. class section.

Kathy Olson: Circulation Co-Ed.: Was also in charge of fundraising and circulation of the yearbook, did various layouts, helped me out in crisis situations.

Laura Thompson: Clubs & Activities Ed: Was responsible in seeing what clubs and activities should be covered in the yearbook, did various clubs and activities layouts, also was copy editor.

Katy VanKonynenburg: Business Manager: Kept track of all our money, how much we sold in ads, and if we were ever going to get out of debt, also worked on some layouts.

Rollin (Bert) Banderob: Photography Ed: Saw to it that each layout had a photographer assigned, made sure that each person had their pictures (usually on time).

Michelle Hall: Photo Co-Ed: Took pictures when we needed them, worked on various layouts, did the Junior section (all by herself). Helped out when we had problems.

Laura Reiff: Photographer: Took pictures for sports and activities, did the girls basketball layouts, took candid for Freshmen section.

Sonia Traphagan: Staff: Was mainly responsible for the Senior class section, did the Senior Baby Picture spread, worked on other layouts.

Bryan Spitulski: Staff: Did all the band and colorguard layouts, helped on the Freshmen class section.

Mychelle Webb: Staff: Worked on different layouts from activities to sports.

Joyce Webb: Staff: Worked on different layouts from activities to sports.

Melocha Davis: Staff: Did various sports and club layouts, did Freshmen class.

Dayna Piland: Staff: Did some of the cheerleading layouts, also worked partially on the Soph. class section.

Laurie Akers: Staff: Did some activity layouts and sports layouts.

Julie Norquist: Staff: Did various sports layouts and worked on some of the cheerleading layouts.

Liz Cisneros: Staff: Responsible for some of the club layouts and sports.

In closing, I would just like to say what a relief it is to see the whole yearbook finally done. Many long and hard hours of dedication were put into this yearbook for your enjoyment. I would like to express great thanks to Mr. Bates who helped all of us throughout the year. I hope that each of you will remember this yearbook and look back on it with great memories, because I know I sure will. The best to all of you, and to next year's staff and editor I wish you great luck and success.

1984 Stars & Stripes Editor

Joyce,
 You've been a really great friend till the end.^{HO} Hope you have a great summer and have alot of fun with those Santa Cruz guys!! But don't get your self into trouble. I'm glad were out because now its time for the fun times to start. don't get to tan because I'll be mad.

Friends Always,

Joyce,
 you've been a great friend, I haven't told much, but knowing you
 Brian Byers

Joyce, this year has been a real and we all are glad. Well have a great summer and keep in touch.
 Anita

To Joyce
 have fun
 Scott Sexton

Joyce -
 I'm glad we are friends. I've known you for quite a long time. I think you're a really sweet, have a great summer and
 stay out of trouble.
 Come over sometime
 How ya?

Joyce -
 I'm glad that I met you this year and that you were in yearbook. For only one year on the staff,
 you did a pretty good
 job. Good luck to you, and I hope that you have fun
 in life and get the most out of it. Have a great summer.

"84" Love,

Sacey Lee

Joyce
 Well can you believe it! From Freshmen math in Dixon's to drivers ED in Saylor's to C.A.W in Shady's and now our last year in yearbook of our senior year.
 Well didn't get a chance to really
 talk to you this year
 but it seemed you had. If you can believe it I'm kind of going to miss being Beyer
 every day. Good luck in the future.
 Have a nice summer.

Love
 Laura

To Joyce
 from
 Robert Fink

Joyce,
 It's been a real nice
 having you in this class.
 you did a real good job.
 your a super person.
 I glad to know you.
 Always,
 Sonia

Joyce, "86, Reyes"

Well kid, guess this is the last yearbook of yours'll be signing, wish it went though.
You're one of the closest friends I have, and I wouldn't change one thing in our friendship for nothing, except that you might get saved too, and I'm still praying about that.

Hope this will be the wildest summer ever for you, and I'm sure it will be cause your summer will last forever!
If things turn out that you get to move to Sonnyville, you better ^{make} plans to come down here for a couple weeks, cause I'll be very upset if you don't.

I would try and tell you don't party, but I know that wouldn't do no good, especially if you move to Sonnyville. So don't party too much, and stay out of trouble. Be cool!

P.S.
I want to meet
arts roommates when I come up there
too. For sure!

Your Friend Forever

Hey Jayceeee-?
Glad to see you're free now, I just hope you get alot out of life but on the way have some fun
I want to wish luck & long ^{to those} ^{Buyer} memories
Good luck forever

Jayce, been it has been really great on events this year.
I am glad we became good friends.
Have fun this summer!
Good luck
with the ^{man}
this year.
